

Talking About Tragedy and Coping with Grief FOR PARENTS

Presented by the Response Crisis Center of LI

Tuesday, February 25, 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Learn age-appropriate ways to talk about personal, communal, and global tragedy with children and teens, while also holding space for your own emotions.

This workshop will include:

- Cross-cultural bereavement practices
- Common cliches
- Damaging terminology
- Societal impact of tragedy on a community

Includes a Q&A. Plus, the Library's SBU Social Work Intern Stephanie Szabo will assist and speak with attendees during and after the program.
